

ELTE | BÁRCZI GUSZTÁV FACULTY OF
SPECIAL NEEDS EDUCATION

THE CENTRE FOR FURTHER TRAINING IN SPECIAL NEEDS EDUCATION

Ágnes Somorjai graduated as a special education teacher in Budapest in 1999, and in 2005 she got another post-graduate degree in the rehabilitation of the visually impaired people. She has been the director of the School for the Blind in Budapest for 13 years. Since 2018, she is the international network coordinator of Enviter.

Her specialty is teaching orientation and mobility to the visually impaired individuals. She is a co-author of university textbooks in this area and a frequent speaker at conferences. Instructor of university and other courses in Hungary and abroad. In addition to the rehabilitation of individuals with visually impairment, her academic interests include environmental accessibility, educational and social integration, organizational development and school management. She believes in lifelong learning for continuous professional development, equal access and international professional cooperation.

